Executive Director Chicago Access Network Television (CAN TV)

Do you have the vision and the skills to move a Non-Profit public access broadcasting network into its next exciting phase of community service? Do you want the challenge and the satisfaction of telling the story of the people of Chicago?

The new ED at CAN TV will need to be a leader with a proven track record of change management in a non-profit, some knowledge of the broadcast industry, and fundraising expertise.

Key Responsibilities:

- Negotiate, regulate, and lobby to ensure compliance by all cable and video providers with local or state franchise requirements for the support of CAN TV.
- Expand the vision for CAN TV in the digital age by developing future-focused technology and services that respond to evolving community needs in Chicago.

Administrative

- Direct administrative operations.
- Ensure the maintenance of official records, documents, and personnel records.
- Ensure compliance with federal, state, and local regulations.
- Recruit, supervise, and develop the core management team as the organization's strategic and functional leadership element.

Board Relations

- Serve as the primary staff liaison to the Board of Directors and support Board meetings.
- Facilitate communication among all constituencies of the organization through all appropriate means.

Strategy & Vision

- Work in collaboration with the Board to ensure the organization's long-range strategy achieves its mission and makes consistent and timely progress toward these goals.

Programming

- Implement and expand programs and services that meet the needs of Chicago residents and non-profits.

Fundraising, Marketing, & Public Relations

- Be a primary liaison for CAN TV with various constituencies, including the media, government, community-based organizations, and potential donors and strategic partners.
If you are interested in this role, please contact:

Nate Jackson, Jr.
Managing Director
Carrington and Carrington LTD.

njackson@carringtonandcarrington.com
260.413.7280